ADDENDUM TO APPLICATION

Application of Vida Homes LLC Block 106, Lot 8 207 Northfield Avenue Northfield, NJ

Vida Homes LLC (“Applicant”) is the contract purchaser of a portion of property located at 207 Northfield Avenue, which is identified on the City of Northfield tax map as Block 106, Lot 8. The property is located in the R-2 Zone and is owned by the Good Shepherd United Methodist Church a/k/a the Northfield Methodist Church. The property current contains the Northfield Methodist Church and related accessory and site improvements. The Church use is a conditional use in the R-2 Zone. There is a large open area of the property located along Northfield Avenue.

The Applicant is proposing to subdivide the property into three proposed lots, shown on the plans presented as proposed Lot 8.01, proposed Lot 8.02 and proposed Lot 8.03. The Church property would remain on Lot 8.01 and, other than its lot size being reduced, nothing would change on that lot. Proposed Lot 8.02 and proposed Lot 8.03 would be sold to the Applicant and developed with single family homes, which are permitted uses in the R-2 Zone. Proposed Lot 8.02 and proposed Lot 8.03 will fully conform with all zoning requirements of the R-2 Zone and, at 13,521 square feet and 14,000 square feet respectively, would in fact be well in excess of the minimum required lot size for the R-2 Zone of 7,500 square feet. Thus, proposed Lot 8.02 and proposed Lot 8.03 require no variance relief from the City of Northfield zoning ordinance and would essentially be “by-right”.

With respect to the Church lot that will remain (proposed Lot 8.01), as noted, nothing would change on that lot except that the overall lot size would be reduced. The existing lot area of the overall property is 89,412 square feet and, following the minor subdivision, the Church lot (proposed Lot 8.01) would be reduced to 61,890 square feet. Places of worship are expressly permitted in the R-2 Zone as conditional uses, subject to the specific conditions set forth in §215-145 of the City of Northfield zoning ordinance. Condition “A” requires a minimum lot area of five acres. The existing property (at 89,412 square feet) is already nonconforming as to that condition and would be reduced further as a result of the subdivision. Accordingly, the Applicant is seeking conditional use variance approval pursuant to N.J.S.A. 40:55D-70d(3) as a result of the deviation from the lot size condition for the Church lot (proposed Lot 8.01). The Church lot (proposed Lot 8.01) will continue to meet all other conditions of §215-145 of the City of Northfield zoning ordinance, with the only deviation being the lot size. Moreover, nothing will change in terms of the church operations and the Applicant submits that the church lot (proposed Lot 8.01) will continue to be well suited for the church use despite the deviation from this one condition. Moreover, Church uses are considered inherently beneficial uses under the New Jersey Municipal Land Use Law and the Applicant submits that the benefits from granting the relief requested far outweigh any detriment, to the extent any detriment exists. It should also be noted that the Church property has an accessory single family dwelling on it. While the single family dwelling is used for church purposes and is accessory to the church use, the Applicant is out of an abundance of caution also applying for a “d” variance to the extend the Board deems it to be required since the lot has dual uses.

The Applicant will provide additional testimony at the time of the hearing to justify the relief being requested.

NOTICE

To Buyer and Seller

Read This Notice Before Signing the Contract

The Law requires real estate brokers to give you the following information before you sign this contract. It requires us to tell you that you must read all of it before you sign. The purpose is to help you in this purchase or sale.

1) As a real estate broker, I represent the seller, not the buyer; the buyer, not the seller; both the seller and the buyer; neither the seller nor the buyer. The title company does not represent either the seller or the buyer.

2) You will not get any legal advice unless you have your own lawyer. Neither I nor anyone from the title company can give legal advice to either the buyer or the seller. If you do not hire a lawyer, no one will represent you in legal matters now or at the closing. Neither I nor the title company will represent you in those matters.

3) The contract is the most important part of the transaction. It determines your rights, risks, and obligations. Signing the contract is a big step. A lawyer would review the contract, help you to understand it, and to negotiate its terms.

4) The contract becomes final and binding unless your lawyer cancels it within the following three business days. If you do not have a lawyer, you cannot change or cancel the contract unless the other party agrees. Neither can the real estate broker nor the title insurance company change the contract.

5) Another important service of a lawyer is to order a survey, title report, or other important reports. The lawyer will review them and help to resolve any questions that may arise about the ownership and condition of the property. These reports and survey can cost you a lot of money. A lawyer will also prepare the documents needed to close title and represent you at the closing.

6) A buyer without a lawyer runs special risks. Only a lawyer can advise a buyer about what to do if problems arise concerning the purchase of this property. The problems may be about the seller's title, the size and shape of the property, or other matters that may affect the value of the property. If either the broker or the title company knows about the problems, they should tell you. But they may not recognize the problem, see it from your point of view, or know what to do. Ordinarily, the broker and the title company have an interest in seeing that the sale is completed, because only then do they usually receive their commissions. So, their interests may differ from yours.

7) Whether you retain a lawyer is up to you. It is your decision. The purpose of this notice is to make sure that you have the information needed to make your decision.
